

Assiniboia Law Group Practice Opportunity

Assiniboia Law Group is looking for a motivated lawyer with 2 to 4 years experience in litigation and family law to associate an existing practice with an established practitioner with a view to eventually assuming conduct of the firm. New client referrals are available from the firm and it is anticipated that a cost-sharing partnership or associate arrangement would be established and remuneration for new client referrals would be based upon a percentage of billings. Alternate salary arrangements may be explored and if this option is to be discussed please include salary expectations along with your resume.

It is desirable that lawyers interested in this opportunity have experience in practice areas of civil and family litigation, real estate, and wills and estates. It is envisioned that family law will form a significant component of any new client base and serve as a fulcrum upon which you may develop work in other practice areas. Interested persons should possess the following qualities:

- some experience in litigation and family law - familiarity with court applications and procedures;
- computer literate and capable of research with strong writing and oral presentation skills;
- prepared to work independently and as a team player;
- possess a strong client-centered ethic;
- motivated with a desire for professional growth;
