

ASSINIBOIA LAW OFFICE

Our suburban law office is looking to expand and is seeking a lawyer with 2 to 5 years experience in general practice. This opportunity will be of interest to a lawyer who possesses a particular interest in family law, and litigation experience in family law would be a significant asset. Experience in civil litigation, real estate, wills, estates and corporate-commercial practice would also be highly beneficial.

The ideal candidate would possess the following qualities:

- experience in litigation and family law, in particular;
- familiarity with a broad range of court applications/procedures including strong familiarity with rules of court and trial procedures;
- the drive and ability to pursue matters through to settlement or trial, as may be warranted in the circumstances;
- highly motivated with a desire for professional growth and prepared to work on a variety of legal matters;
- possess a strong client-centered ethic and an entrepreneurial flair for practice development
- proven ability to work independently and as a member of a team within a small office environment.

For those who may be interested, portability of an established practice is a definite asset but the firm will assist in establishing a clientele.

If you are interested in developing your practice with our office, please submit your resume and cover letter to jbarber@alawgroup.ca and bbuss@alawgroup.ca by August 15, 2017.
