

The downtown law office of Wilder Wilder & Langtry is seeking a lawyer with experience in family law. The ideal candidate would possess the following qualities:

- familiarity with a broad range of court applications and procedures; including strong knowledge of rules of court and trial procedures
- the drive and ability to follow matters through to a settlement or trial based on each circumstance
- highly motivated with a aspiration for professional growth
- possess a strong client ethic and the drive to develop a strong practice
- ability to work independently and as a member of a team within a small office environment

If you are interested in developing your practice with our office, please submit your cover letter and resumé to admin@wilderwilder.com by September 15, 2017