Presenter Profile

David Joycey, *Barrister & Solicitor

David Joycey retired after nearly 15 years with Legal Aid Manitoba's Child Protection Law Office where he was supervising attorney for 12 years. Currently a member of the private bar, David operates a solo practice 'part-time', taking only child protection matters in Winnipeg and on circuit.

David's professional career started in England where he qualified as a high school teacher. Moving to Canada as a teacher, he worked for a number of years for the United Church of Canada in Ontario and Newfoundland before relocating to Manitoba to work at New Directions (then The Children's Home of Winnipeg) where he was a program developer and manager for 12 years. He then entered law school and was called to the Bar in 1994. Prior to working at Legal Aid Manitoba, David practiced criminal law in Winnipeg and Amaranth.

He claims that he only works now to buy feed for his horses and keep his mind sharp.
